RAD & Section 18 - New Opportunities Telecon

Join our September 14 telecon on how recent RAD and Section 18 changes offer new opportunities along with implementation issues for PHAs and their partners.

We're pleased that Jane Hornstein, the director of HUD's SAC office responsible for Section 18 implementation among other responsibilities important to RAD, will now be on the telecon along with Greg Byrne and Will Lavy of HUD's Recap Office. Plus Reno & Cavanaugh counsel and RC advisors will help facilitate the discussion.

WHEN: Friday, September 14, at 2PM EDT

AGENDA: guided by your Q&A, we'll likely touch on:

- Current RAD rents relative to modified FY16 & FY18 rents in the works—and seeking CHAP amendments for them
- Applications process & help for new RAD units
- Strategies for bundling agency & RAD PBVs
- RAD & Section 18 processing tips relative to new 75/25, scattered-site & last 50 provisions
- Considerations for the upcoming RAD notice provision, including the new Section 202 PRAC authority
- What your colleagues are seeing & doing now with all the new provisions
- Your Q&A

To refresh on the all the new RAD and Section 18 changes, find what you need on the Collaborative's web page under New Tools & Helpful Info.

RAD Resource Desk Training

In case you missed it, HUD's Recap Office worked to enhance the utility of the RAD Resource Desk over the summer. The new version will be rolled out on September 10. For those with CHAPS, this is a critical information exchange with HUD in progressing in conversions.

HUD will be conducting next week 2 webinar orientations to the new Resource Desk utilities. Join either by clicking on the links below.
